"What is the position of the Republican Senators as a body on this question of putting the income fax into operation?" was asked the Senator.

'I believe that the Republicant are nearly all opposed to appropriating money to put this law into effect," responded Mr Quay, "We propose that no action be taken spon it until after the Republican Senotors from the three Northwestern States and from North Carolina have taken their seats I understand that the appropriation bill has gone over until next week benator Cockrell, thairman of the Appropriation Committee, has seen advised to let the bill go over until about the end of the month, when the four Republican Senators will have taken their seats If the advise is not taken it is not unlikely that the bill will be debated until that time' "Do you think there is any chance of defeating the appropriation?"

"I cannot say for certain, but I be lieve that a fight could be made that would prevent its saesage' said Mr Quny

Senator Quay, it is understood, has directed his private secretary to get the remainder of his tariff speech, which was undelivered when Congress adjourned last August, into shape and ready for an insited by unanimous vote to address the emergency. He is prepared to talk for an indefinite period of time if such obstructive tactles are necessary to defeat the income tax appropriation Senator Hill, of New York, is relied on to assist in the fight. He has made no positive declaration but his course in opposing the income tax has hi herto been in consistent one. In answer to an inquiry from the Press corre pendent to-day,

Senator Hill said -"My position is this. The licome tax feature of the new tariff law was sneaked
